

The legend of the knight

In Ireland, four hundred years ago, lived in a big castle one king, his wife and his son. They always were a happy and a rich family.

Richard reach 18 years and he started be a new and a strange person. Richard began go to the wood early and he carne back to the castle in the night. His parents were very worried, Richard didnt talk with them, he didnt eat nothing in all day.

One day they attempted speak with him, but he put very violent and he attempted hit his mother, the king Peter anoyed a lot with Richard and exiled him.

Richard became in a dangerous knight of the night. He killed a lot of people defenseless, he brought in the houses, killed people and stole thing of value. In the village he was very dreadful.

The king Peter ordered his mans found and killed him, because he was a murderous. Richard, obtained hear of the his search, and went to the castle for kill his father, but he didnt obtain this because the mans of the Peter found and killed him.

The people say, the spirit of Richard followed a lot of time scaring of the people. This isnt false, because one time later appeared in the wood, the body of Peter decapite, and since this day, nobody saw never again the spirit of Richard.
